MR. AND MRS. FESS HOSTS AT DINNER

Guests of honor at an elaborate dinner given Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fess of Arlington avenue were Mr. and Mrs. Judge Greiner and son of Needles, Calif., who left Sunday evening for a visit in New York and Chicago.

Other guests for whom places were marked were Mr. and Mrs. Gall Hendry of Los Angeles, Dr. J. P. Graf of Inglewood, and Mrs. Percy Sweet and daughter, of San Pedro.

LOS ANGELES GIRL BRIDE OF CLARENCE WOODWARD

The wedding of Miss Eva Newton of Los Angeles and Clarence Woodward of Arlington avenue took place last night at the bride's home on West Twenty-seventh street.

The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. Smith of the L. D. S. Church, in the presence of about forty members of the two families.

The young couple were attended by Miss Bessie Crane of Los Angeles and George Newton of San Diego, sister and brother-in-law of the bride.

At the wedding supper, which followed, a bride's loaf and a huge wedding cake, both elaborately decorated, were the center of attraction.

On their return from a ten-day trip to the redwood district the young couple will make their home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Woodward Sr., at 2107 Arlington avenue. Young Woodward is employed at the Union Tool plant.

Included among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Woodward Sr., Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tolson, of Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Gilfus, of Vallejo; Miss Ruth McKenzie and Mr. Carson, of Los Angeles; Frederick Mund, of Wilmington; and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Woodward, of Long Beach.

MRS. MCKINLEY HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

The Afternoon Bridge Club was delightfully entertained last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. May McKinley of Cota avenue.

Honors were awarded Mrs. W. C. Von Hagen, Mrs. George Greaves, and Mrs. F. H. Dye. Other members present were Mrs. George Watson, Mrs. Henry Barnett, Mrs. W. C. Dolley, Mrs. O. E. Fossum, Mrs. Harry McManus, Mrs. A. W. Meisner, Mrs. F. L. Parks, and Mrs. Ruggles.

ETERI CLUB HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

The Eteri Club gave an interesting program at the Evangelical Church last Sunday evening. Among the musical numbers was an original composition by Tot Wheaton. A talk by Miss Rowan was very much enjoyed.

Due to the fact that so many members are attending the Eteri conference, there will be no meeting Saturday, July 3.

Eteri girls who will attend conference are Mildred Pannier, Mary Guyan, Marion Wright, Anna Mae Dillard, Tot Wheaton, D. Darling, Eileen Woodburn, and Ruth Beckwith.

GEORGETTA HALL BRIDE OF KENNETH WHEATON

Mr. and Mrs. George Hall announce the marriage of their daughter Georgetta Florence to Kenneth George Wheaton.

The ceremony was performed June 26 at Santa Cruz, where the young people will make their home.

MISS POWELL WEDDED TO ANAHEIM MAN

Miss Clara Lenora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George V. Powell, and Robert W. Schutz of Anaheim were married Thursday, June 24, by Rev. B. H. Lingentel, pastor of the First Christian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Schutz will make their home in Anaheim, where Mr. Schutz is engaged in the garage business.

Miss Powell was a sophomore at Torrance High School this year.

EPWORTH LEAGUE TO HAVE WIENER BAKE

All Epworth Leaguers and friends are cordially invited to attend the wiener bake to be held at Clifton Tuesday evening, July 2. Everyone is asked to wear old clothes.

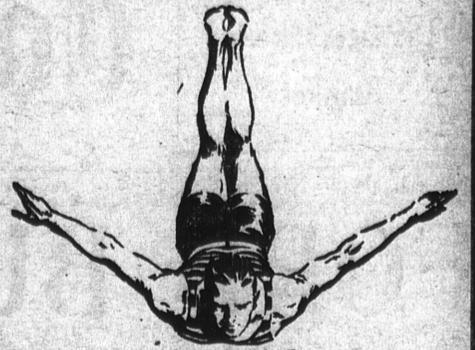

Features of the evening will be surf bathing and a business meeting around the campfire.

Transportation will be provided for all who care to go. Be at the Methodist Church at 7 o'clock sharp! Friday evening! July 2!

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Singleton of Fort Worth, Tex., are guests of Mrs. John C. Stanberry of 1924 Andros avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Singleton visited Oregon and other places of interest on their way to Torrance, where they will remain for a short time.
